

Dear parents and carers,

On Monday 25. November there will be a special pyjama mufti day for the whole school as we launch our exciting new topic! Please could the children come in wearing their pyjamas and dressing gowns or onsies.

If you have any questions, please speak to your child's class teacher.

Many thanks, The High Street Team